America Can Win the War on Terrorism

WEST PALM BEACH, FL —

The brutal assassination of Benazir Bhutto during a suicide attack of a political rally in Karachi by unknown radical factions in Pakistan last month is one more indication that Al Qaeda and Muslim militants in the Middle East are stepping up their attacks against supporters of the United States to prevent the spread of democracy.

America will win the War on Terrorism if we can eliminate our dependency on oil, or at least bring oil prices down to $20-$30/barrel, according to Sid Dinerstein in his new book, Adults Only: For Those Who Love Their Country More than Their Party.

“No oil, no money,” he says. “No money...no weapons, no recruits, no training, no media. In short, no money...no war. We win. They lose.”

Dinerstein explains his views succinctly as he discusses a dozen different topics in detailing what America needs to do to get back on track and solve the issues we face in the 21st century.

Adults Only: For Those Who Love Their Country More Than Their Party is available at local bookstores, Amazon.com, through the website www.siddinerstein.com or by calling 1-888-281-5170.
